

Perspecta

Title: Classified and Unclassified SOC Analyst

Location: Stennis Space Center in Hancock, MS

POC: Jennifer Jamison

Jennifer.Jamison@perspecta.com

Description:

Provides basic Monitoring and Analysis support of computer security events

Detect

Perform initial triage

Report computer security events, in accordance with established processes and procedures

Coordinate with Contractor and Government SOC's, Incident Response Team, ISSM, ISSO's, System Owners, and others as needed to analyze events

Support ongoing analysis and response of computer security incidents by Incident Response Team

Success Factors / Job Competencies:

Working knowledge of Splunk

Working knowledge of Tanium

Working knowledge of McAfee ePO, DLP and NSM

Execute the 4Cs (Candor, Competence, Confidence, and Commitment) on a daily basis

Providing quality support to the customer

Physical Demands and Work Environment:

Working with computers and architecture

Sitting for lengths of time

Operating at peak and non-peak hours

SECURITY CLEARANCE

Experience working in a SOC

Experience working in a classified environment.

Experience handling classified information.

Works well with team members

Ability to work non-core hours (swing or night shift) if necessary

3-4 years technical experience

Security+ or CEH

Understanding of network protocols

Experience with monitoring SIEMs

Experience with reviewing IDS, Firewall and other security logs

U.S. Citizenship required

Must be able to pass a Federal background investigation